

Abstract

The purpose of this project is to provide academic detail on the effects of turnover on the organizational performance. The project focuses primarily on the assignment handled ,working conditions, success and the process of service provision. It provide my views on the general performance to Public service .